LI HUNG CHANG DEAD.

The Veteran Chinese Statesman Passes.

Earl Li Hung Chang, the veteran Chinese statesman, is dead. For some months back Earl Li had been suffering from a complication of ailments and it was with great difficulty that he had been able to carry on his duties. His illness took the form of ulceration of the stomach and had become more acute in the last few weeks. His death occurred in Peking.

Li Hung Chang was born in 1823 at Hsueh, a little city in the province of Anhwei, one of the provinces of central China. The Li family is purely Chinese, without mixture of Manchuk blood. Young Li was studious, entered Hanlin College and made rapid progress. The Taiping rebellion (1851-54), ranking as the greatest in modern times for devastation of property and destruction of life, called Li from a life of study to a military activity for which he had no fit training.

LI HUNG CHANG.

but in which he showed unusual ability. Li raised a regiment of home troops, with which he harassed the rebel army, hanging on their rear and cutting their communications. His conspicuous patriotism and ability in the crisis which ended in a general repulse of the rebels brought him to the notice of Taeng Kwofan, commander-in-chief of the Chinese armies, then the greatest Chinaman known to foreign nations, father of Marquis Taeng, long the Chinese minister to Great Britain. Li's militia was incorporated into the main army and he was given important military commands.

After the Anglo-French invasion of China, ending in the capture of Peking (1860) had given the almost quenched rebellion a revival which again endangered the imperial dynasty, Li was appointed (1861) viceroy or governor of the province of Kiangsu, with his residence at Shanghai. This was an important epoch in his life. He was at the age of 40 years.

Earl Li has held, almost continuously through many years, several high offices in the imperial government, such as secretary to the grand council of state, superintendent of foreign trade for the northern ports, superintendent of coast defense for the northern district and senior guardian of the heir apparent. The burdens which this man has carried during all these years and the range both of his responsibilities and of his opportunities as a ruler of a vast empire are amazing.

NEW PENSIONS ARE INCREASED.

Bureau's Report Shows Large Percentage Seeking Enrollment.

In his annual report the Commissioner of Pensions discusses at length the faults of the present system of pensioning and the difficulties in the way of determining the merits of claims for pension and increase.

The report presents a number of interesting features connected with the filing of claims for pension on account of the war with Spain and the insurrection in the Philippine Islands. It is shown that the soldiers of these wars enjoy much greater benefits than were accorded to the soldiers of the Civil War. In 1895 the minimum pension was established at $3 per month. Nearly 100,000 soldiers of the Civil War received from $1 to $4 per month from 1865 to 1895, and a disability from loss of arm or leg, which now entitles the soldier to $45 per month, gave him only $8 per month in 1865.

While the Civil War lasted for four years and the casualties were enormous, and the Spanish-American war lasted only about four months, with comparatively few casualties, it is shown that three years after the close of the Spanish-American war, claims for pension amounting to about 20 per cent of the number of soldiers engaged in that war had been filed, while in 1872, or seven years after the close of the Civil War, only about 6 per cent of the soldiers engaged in that war had filed claims.

The Commissioner says that he is not prepared to believe that those who engaged in the war with Spain, many of them sons of veterans of the Civil War, were less patriotic than their ancestors or more covetous, but in his opinion it is the fault of the system of pensioning, with its active army of attorneys, solicitors and drummers, who are practically licensed by the government with the promise of $25 for each claim allowed.

Attention is directed to the friction and unkind feeling that attends the administration of the act of Aug. 7, 1882, which provides that the open wrong-doing of a widow pensioner shall operate to terminate her pension. The absence of such a law, it is stated, would encourage and permit such pensioners to dishonor the memory of their soldier husbands, while still enjoying the bounty of the government, and on the other hand, the widow who respects the law and marries loses her pension. The Commissioner says that, while the law is a most delicate and difficult one to administer, yet he cannot recommend its repeal.

In January, 1900, a rule was adopted requiring guardians of pensioners to render to the bureau annual accounts. The rule was followed by disclosures which in some instances were of a startling nature. Guardians were found to be drawing pensions long after the death of their wards. Many cases were found where insane pensioners had been placed in asylums and other public institutions as indigent persons, while the guardians had drawn the pensions during the whole period.

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK.

That gold which should be made at this season is somewhat surprising, but without bearing on the financial situation except as it tends to draw down the surplus reserves of the New York banks. As gold goes out at New York comes in from the Klondike and Australia, and besides those two sources there is a steady and large supply from the mines in this country. About $12,000,000 has been received from the Klondike, and nearly as much from Australia, so far this year. The mere sending of this metal that comes in at the back door out of the front door is ineffective so far as it concerns the gold store of this country, now at its highest point. England is still cut off from its base of supplies in South Africa. The war completely stopped the output, and latterly troubles with Kafir labor, resulting from the demoralizing effects of the contest with the Boers, have presented new obstacles.

Under the circumstances, with the money market relatively easy here and more or less demoralized throughout Europe, America can spare considerable gold. It owes some for loans contracted in Europe this spring to raise funds for bridging over purchases in connection with the Northern Pacific difficulties. These loans are maturing, and Paris and England are unwilling, perhaps unable, to renew them.

Chicago.

Business in the interior districts of the country, no less than in the large centers, remains active. Colder weather has helped retail trade. Iron and steel mills are sold well ahead for domestic consumption. The industry is suffering more than any other for the lack of freight cars. Greater attention has been attracted to the New York stock market by the improvement of prices, but this is the result more of professional trading than of public interest. Wheat prices on the Board of Trade advanced during the week 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 cents, and sentiment seemed more in favor of the buying side than it has been for months. There has been a lot of buying on the belief that with corn at 60 cents and oats at 40 cents wheat should be selling at least at 80 cents. Corn is selling at 60c in the West, and around 62c to 63c in Kansas City, but receipts everywhere are small and the primary movement for the week was only 1,755,000 bushels, or about 800,000 bushels less than last year. The western farmer has become thoroughly imbued with his importance as a master of the situation, and while he has little corn to sell, he expects fancy prices. In Chicago December advanced above 60c last week, and May touched 62 1/2c, or within 3/8c of the high point of the crop. Oats sold at the highest price on the crop—40c for May, equaling the top figure on the August bulge.

CAR FAMINE STILL SERIOUS.

Steel Furnaces Closed Owing to Inability to Secure Fuel.

According to R. G. Dunn & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, little relief has been afforded the leading manufacturing industry in the matter of transporting facilities. In fact, the situation on the whole is less satisfactory since inability to secure coke has brought about the banking of twenty furnaces. This in turn tends to hinder the market for pig iron, though no actual alteration in prices has occurred, except at Philadelphia, where 25 cents more a ton is readily paid. As this industry is considered the best business barometer, present conditions and future prospects are certainly most encouraging, for orders are abundant and plants enlarging capacity in order to handle the growing business. Material is purchased now for much structural work in the spring, and additional contracts are seeking acceptance.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS

Results of the Fall Elections in Many States.

TAMMANY IS ROUTED.

New York City Elects Seth Low as Mayor After a Hot Contest.

Republican Gains Shown in the Central and Western Sections of the Country—Slight Loss in East—Nash Re-Elected Governor of Ohio with 68,000 Lead—Iowa Breaks Its Record—Fusion Ticket Defeated in Pennsylvania.

Elections were held in eleven States other than New York Tuesday. In six of these Governors were chosen and the Republicans were successful in New Jersey, Ohio, Massachusetts, Iowa and Rhode Island. The Democrats elected a Governor in Virginia. In five other States, where purely local issues prevailed, the Democrats carried Kentucky by increased majorities. Nebraska remained in the Republican column, the regular Quay Republicans were victorious in Pennsylvania, while Mississippi and perhaps Maryland remain in the Democratic column. This means a gain of two Democratic United States Senators from Maryland and Kentucky, should the Democrats in the former State win. In IMPORTANT RESULTS OF THE ELECTIONS.

NEW YORK CITY—Tammany defeated. Low elected Mayor. Jerome gets a plurality. Van Wyck is beaten.
OHIO—Carried by Republicans. Nash elected Governor by 68,000. Both branches of the Legislature are Republican.
KENTUCKY—Democratic Legislature elected, which will name the successor of United States Senator Deboe, Republican.
IOWA—Cummins, the Republican candidate, elected Governor.
MARYLAND—Democrats carry the Legislature. Gorman regains control of the Legislature.
NEW JERSEY—Again in the Republican column. Franklin Murphy elected Governor.
NEBRASKA—Shows Republican gains over 1900. Democrats are beaten by about 10,000.
MASSACHUSETTS—Early returns indicate that Crane, Republican, is elected Governor by 70,000.
VIRGINIA—Returns received up to 1 a. m. Wednesday point to a sweeping Democratic victory.
RHODE ISLAND—Democrats gain in the Assembly. Republicans elect all State officers.

than is usual in an "off year" was evidenced from the manner in which they turned out at the elections Tuesday. Even when little interest had been shown before the election an unexpectedly large percentage of the voters cast their ballots. While interest centered in the State in Greater New York, many of the State elections had national importance. The election of Seth Low as Mayor of New York City could scarcely be considered a Republican victory, as the fusion candidate had the endorsement of many Democrats.

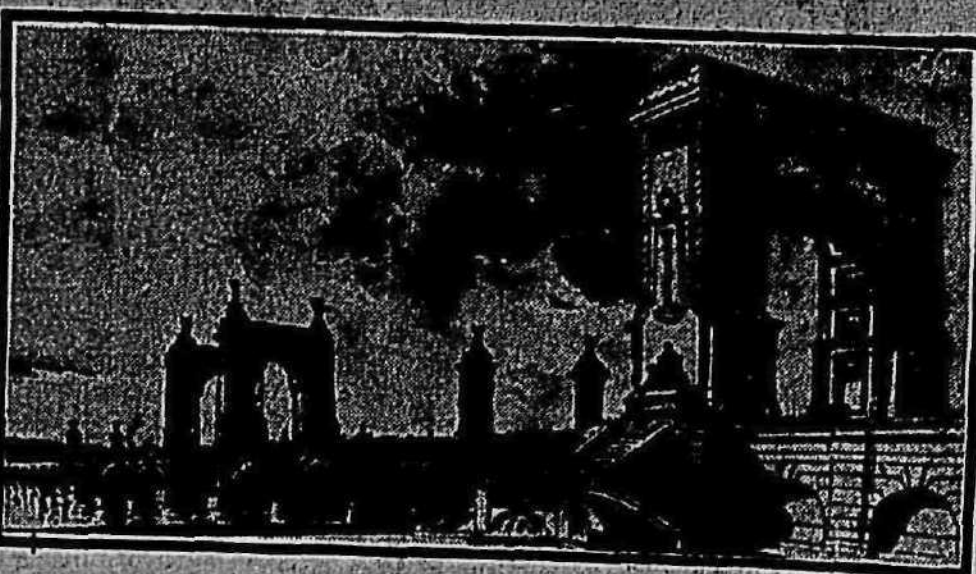

Reports received from the various sections of New York State show that the Republicans will retain control of the lower house of the State Legislature, the number of Republican and Democratic Assemblymen not differing materially from the figures of preceding years. Of the State elections probably the most important was that of Ohio, which gave Nash, the Republican nominee, over 68,000 votes over Col. Kilbourne, Republican gains were shown in almost every county, except Franklin, Kilbourne's home. The Legislature will be Republican by a big majority.

Iowa piled up a record-breaking plurality, it being estimated early Wednesday morning that A. B. Cummins, the nominee for Governor, had nearly 85,000 more votes than his Democratic opponent. South Dakota elected judges and minor officers, the indications from meager reports being that Republicans had made gains.

In the various municipal contests in New York State the most interesting elections noted were those of Albany, Troy, Rochester, Syracuse and Buffalo. The city of Albany was carried by the Republicans, ex-Senator David B. Hill taking no active part in the local canvass.

In Buffalo the entire Republican city and county tickets were elected. Erasmus C. Knight, the State Controller, being chosen Mayor. The result in Rochester was close, but Mayor Warner's friends claim the election of the Republican candidate.

EVERY ONE TO SHARE IN BUILDING MCKINLEY ARCH.

PLAN FOR THE PROPOSED ARCH.

THE William McKinley National Memorial Arch Association, which has been incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia, with the purpose of erecting a memorial arch in honor of the late President in Washington, will depend upon voluntary contributions from Americans, both at home and abroad. It is the present purpose of the committee to have the arch span the entrance to the proposed memorial bridge across the Potomac river from Washington to the Virginia shore.

The arch, with its bas-reliefs and statues, will be entirely the work of American architects, artists and sculptors, and no limit has been put upon its cost, this depending entirely upon the amount of contributions received.

The association will have headquarters in Washington, but every State and large city will have a vice-president and an organization to encourage subscriptions. Bishop Henry C. Potter is one of the vice-presidents for New York. President Roosevelt has accepted honorary membership in the association and Hon. Lyman Gage, Secretary of the Treasury, is treasurer. Admiral Dwyer is also a vice-president, and prominent men in every State and large city and in the cities abroad where Americans live are accepting vice-presidencies in the association and aiding in the work of raising funds. The association has just secured a charter and now invites contributions.

VOTE IN MANY STATES.

Iowa.
A. B. Cummins, Republican candidate for Governor, has been elected over T. J. Phillips by a plurality of over 80,000. The prohibition vote has been largely increased, advancing from 9,000 last year to 25,000 this year. Practically every precinct shows a falling off in the Democratic vote. Out of the ninety-nine counties in the State the Democrats carried only six. The Legislature from early returns will contain 125 Republicans and 23 Democrats. A gain of ten for the Republicans. Chairman Spencer contended that when all the returns were in they would show more than 100,000 majority for the Republicans and that the gain in the Legislature would be fourteen instead of ten. The total vote shows a falling off of 25 per cent. Senators Allison and Dolliver will be re-elected.

Ohio.
Gov. George K. Nash has been re-elected by an increased plurality. The Republicans have a majority in both branches of the Legislature, insuring the return of Senator Foraker to the United States Senate. Early returns indicate a Republican plurality of 68,000 for Gov. Nash and the whole State ticket, and that the Democratic gains are confined to Franklin County, where Kilbourn, for Governor, has not less than 2,500 majority, as against a majority of 1,728 for Nash two years ago. The result is due to the popularity of Kilbourn at home and the fight put up by the saloon inter-

Nebraska.
Republicans elected their State ticket by fully 6,000 plurality. The vote cast was 20 per cent below that of last November. The Republican State Central Committee made an estimate placing the plurality for Judge Sedgewick at 7,000. On figures from nearly 400 precincts outside of Lincoln and Omaha the State Journal Wednesday morning estimated Judge Sedgewick's plurality at not less than 5,000 and said it might be 11,000. The few early returns on regents of the university show they do not differ greatly from the heads of the tickets. "Early calculations were upset by the vote in some counties heretofore fusion, notably Nebraska, Buffalo, Nickolls, Clay and Kearney, which this year gave small or pronounced Republican pluralities."

Pennsylvania.
The fusion leaders in Philadelphia concede their defeat by the Quay Republicans. More votes were cast than in a presidential year. The State candidates are elected by 70,000 plurality. Frank G. Harris (Rep.) has been elected State Treasurer over Elisha A. Coray, Jr., the fusion candidate, by between 50,000 and 55,000 plurality. In 1890 Barnett (Rep.) for State Treasurer, had a plurality of 110,688 over Creamer (Dem.). William J. Potter (Rep.) has defeated Harman Yerkes (fusion) for judge of the Supreme Court by about 50,000. Common pleas, or orphans' court, judges were chosen in sixteen judicial districts in the State and in a great majority of these the Republicans were victorious.

Maryland.
Early Wednesday both sides claimed the State Legislature, which, if Democratic, will insure the return of Arthur Pue Gorman to the United States Senate. Under the new election law the State board was effectively blocked. The State printer and two members of the election board were arrested, charged with conspiracy with fraudulent intent in printing the ballot.

Massachusetts.
W. Murray Crane, Republican candidate for Governor, is re-elected by 64,000 over Josiah Quincy. The Republicans made no campaign. Democrats gained several members of the Assembly, but the Legislature is safely Republican on joint ballot.

CROKER QUILTS AS LEADER.

Turns Chiefdomship of Tammany Over to Carroll After Election.
According to a New York dispatch, Richard Croker abdicated the leadership of Tammany Tuesday night after the result of the election was known. Croker, Maurice Untermyer and Senator T. D. Sullivan were together at dinner and it is said that a little later Mr. Croker declared this was his last political fight. Mr. Croker asked Senator Sullivan whom he desired as leader. Sullivan answered that John F. Carroll would be pleasing to him. Then and there, it is said, Croker abdicated his leadership of Tammany Hall and turned it over to John F. Carroll.

The party proceeded to Tammany Hall, where John F. Carroll was awaiting them. He was apprised of the purpose of Mr. Croker, but said nothing. He accompanied Mr. Croker to the Democratic Club in a cab and going upstairs remained closeted with him for nearly an hour. It was after this conference that Mr. Croker announced, "This is my last campaign."

There was some discussion as to the plans of a reorganization of Tammany, in which Mr. Croker took no part except to suggest that younger blood be admitted to the inner council.

ILLINOIS STATE NEWS

OCCURRENCES DURING THE PAST WEEK.

Natural Gas Well at Heyworth—Fire Destroys Waukegan Factories—Five and Three Children Run Away from Waukegan Man—Centenary Dies.

Illinois as a natural gas State. That is by no means undoubtable if the success in developing the industry at Heyworth is any criterion. Scientists insist that the only reason why Illinois is not so widely known for its natural gas or has lost the millions secured to Indiana by its wells is solely because no attempt has been made to secure such riches. About all the gas that has been found in Illinois, well was discovered in looking for water, as in fact, was the case at Heyworth. The supply at Heyworth is believed to be inexhaustible. One well has been drilled in undisturbed volume for fourteen years, but it is only recently that its utilization for municipal or commercial purposes was suggested. C. E. Sanborn, an expert from Indianapolis, investigated the conditions and declared that the gas was of better quality than in Indiana. A stock company was formed and main laid through the city. Now the work is done, and from now on Heyworth will enjoy the cheapest fuel and lighting in the State. The Heyworth average is but 200 feet, and yet in some the gas will ignite leaps to a height of 200 feet, showing the enormous pressure.

Live More than a Century.
In the death of John O'Brien at his home near Middletown Station there passed away one of the oldest men in Illinois. He was 103 years of age and in many ways was a remarkable man. When a lad he shipped as a sailor, and his boyhood and early manhood were spent before the mast. The rough and rugged life he led doubtless had much to do with giving him a strong constitution, for until a few weeks before his death he was as spry as many men of 50 or 60 years.

He came to America in 1822 and settled at LaSalle, Ill. In 1849 he moved with his family to Shelby County, where he had since resided. In the death of Mrs. Cynthia Prestice of Union, LaSalle County, lost its oldest resident. She was 104 years of age, having been born in Washington, Cheshire County, N. H., May 8, 1797.

Fire in Waukegan Factories.
Fire on the lake front at Waukegan destroyed the West Coast factory, where a patent asphalt roofing is made, and damaged the Wilder-Manning tannery and the plant of the Porter Battery Company, causing a loss of $50,000. Joseph Steinmetz was burned to death in the West Coast factory. The president of the company operating that plant is H. A. Langhin of Chicago. Its loss is $30,000. The company carried $10,000 insurance with a local agency, but canceled it May 2. It is not known whether it was placed elsewhere or not. The Porter company's loss is $20,000, and it has $6,000 insurance. The West Coast factory was an old landmark, a relic of fifty years ago, when Waukegan was a grain shipping port.

Hunt for Runaway Wife.
Hunting for his supposedly runaway wife, Edward Blanchard, a young farmer living a few miles north of Waukegan, has applied to his friends of the vicinity to help him in the search. With the woman the couple's three children are gone. According to Blanchard's story, he helped his wife hitch up the horse recently. Then, after waiting herself in the barn with the children, the woman, he claims, drove away and shouted back that he might never see her or the children again. The husband ran in pursuit, but the horse soon outdistanced him. Since then the fugitives have not again been seen. Domestic estrangement is thought to be the cause of the flight.

Hitherto the quarantine period has extended from Jan. 1 to Nov. 1. Gov. Yates has issued a proclamation announcing amendment.
Henry Brishin of Maple Park was chloroformed the other night and his money stolen and his house set on fire. In a few minutes after the assault the structure was a mass of flames, from which the neighbors succeeded in rescuing Brishin only after he had been fatally burned. The thief secured $250 in money which was in the house at the time. A notorious character, Brishin was arrested, charged with the crime. Brishin is an Albino and for many years was one of the attractions with Barnum's circus.

There have been forty-two cases of smallpox at Hamilton and many others have been exposed. The State Board of Health and city officials have the matter well in hand. Four schools in the western part of the county were closed on account of the disease.

He was playing with two companions, William Black and John Rooney, beneath a small house resting on four posts when the supports suddenly broke. Black and Rooney escaped, but Hazen was pinned beneath the structure and crushed to death.

The Jackson County Board of Supervisors has granted a franchise for a telephone system to the Farmers' Economic Union, including the use of all the public highways of the county for insulating the new system. The union is composed exclusively of farmers. It is believed the franchise is the first ever granted to a secret organization.

Gov. Yates has commuted the sentence of James Reubart, who is serving a term in the Cook County house of correction, in order that the defendant may spend Thanksgiving day at home. Reubart was convicted in the criminal court of Cook County in January, 1901, and was sentenced to serve a year. The Governor also commuted the sentence of William Hazen, who was sentenced to serve a year in the same institution.

What is known as the largest tree in Illinois and probably the largest in the Northwest, two miles west of Wilmette, was set on fire on a recent night, and the residents of Wilmette and the Historical Society of Evanston are hunting for the culprit. The tree is 130 feet high and the flames could be seen rushing out of the knot holes sixty feet above the ground. The light of the fire could be seen for three miles. The tree has been hollow for a long time and the flames roared up the inside. The tree has probably been killed by the flames and smoke.

With her six-months-old child in her arms Mrs. Viola Miller, 10 years old, walked all the way to Chicago from Lakeside in search of her errand husband and was found wandering helplessly through the streets. The child wife, deserted by her spouse, had taken three days for her journey. The weather turned cold soon after she started, but with her child in her arms she trudged bravely through the rain and snow and faced the bitter winds that followed up on the clearing of the skies until the end of the journey was reached. The police will make an effort to find her husband, who is thought to be in the city.

Col. Frank O. Lowden has just made a valuable addition to his magnificent country place on the Rock river, where the Lowdens spend most of the year. The addition consists of 200 acres of fine land, and this makes the farm 3,200 acres in extent. Col. Lowden has engaged extensively in landscape farming and the place has been stocked with fine cattle. The value of land in the Rock valley has been increasing steadily. One farm of 320 acres recently sold for $28,000. Six years ago the same land was bought for $42 an acre. Within a very few days two small farms aggregating about 350 acres in Laona township brought $17,000.

When football claimed as its victim John Segrist, center rush of the Ohio State University, it ruthlessly ended a love dream of a well-known Belvidere young woman. After his death the story of his romance became known among the friends of Miss Grace Chapman of Belvidere, who had promised to become his bride. The young couple first met at the Lake Geneva Assembly a year ago. Mr. Segrist being there as the representative of the Columbus Y. M. C. A. Dr. Hews arrived in Laporte accompanied by his office assistant, Andrew Backus, and the young stranger, for whom he had formed a strong liking. All were guests at the home of the doctor's sister. That night by operating carefully the stranger managed to relieve the doctor of several diamond rings and stick pins and his pocket-book, containing $100. Backus discovered the loss about 1 o'clock in the morning. A call was immediately sent to police headquarters and the bluecoats responded. While the house was surrounded, so that he might not escape, the thief was taken into custody. All the stolen property was found in his possession. The man was placed in a cell at the jail and held until morning, but as Dr. Hews refused to prosecute he was released.

WOULD DELAY ST. LOUIS FAIR.

Exposition Official Thinks It Should Be Postponed.

Adolphus Busch, chairman of the committee on foreign relations of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, who has just returned to St. Louis from a six-months' tour of Europe, in an interview said: "It would be impossible to hold a great world's fair in St. Louis in 1903. If the exposition is to be on a scale of international greatness the time for representation should be postponed at least one year."

President D. R. Francis of the exposition, when shown the statement of Busch, said: "The fair cannot and will not be postponed. I have said this before, and I repeat it now, whatever anyone else may have said. Mr. Busch is not advised as to what progress we are making, or he would not have made such a statement. President McKinley's invitation to the world to attend the fair in 1903 has gone out, and it would be impossible to change the time now. As to the foreign nations, said President Francis, 'we will have them ready to exhibit here in 1903. Mr. De Olyveira has just departed for Spain and Portugal, and will also visit South America. The most flattering reports of Spanish good will and assistance come from London. In the case of the Chicago exposition, which was postponed one year, Congress had caused the postponement before the invitations were issued.'

SEASON'S FIRST STORM.

Cold Weather and Snow Comes to Many Western States.

The first severe storm of the season swept through several of the Western States Sunday night and Monday morning, bringing with it a heavy snowfall. The storm was particularly severe in Iowa, where it brought a blizzard and a heavy snowfall. The storm was also severe in Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri. The first snow of the season. In some places the snow was heavy enough to interfere with traffic. Farmers in many places caught unprepared and were unable to feed their stock. The storm was also severe in the West. The temperature fell to below freezing all day. The official thermometer in the Chicago weather office registered 10 degrees above zero Monday morning. The first blast of winter came over southern Kansas Sunday. The sudden change in the weather began with a drizzling rain, which developed into a wind and rain storm and continued for several hours. In Texas, too, the cold was felt. The mercury fell to the freezing point in the northern part of the State. It is claimed that this means the end of top crop of cotton giving for larger part of central and north Texas not over 50 per cent of the average yield.

RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE REPORT.

Superintendent White Tells of Large Increase Over Previous Year.

The annual report of General Superintendent White of the railway mail service for the fiscal year 1901 shows that at the close of the year there were 138 full railway postoffice lines, 1102 apartment car lines, nineteen electric and cable lines and forty-seven steamboat lines in operation. The total mileage of railway, steamboat, electric and cable lines covered by railway postoffice service was 122,000. The place of mail matter handled (exclusive of registered matter) was 181,224,420, an increase of 231 per cent over last year. The number of errors in distribution was one to every 10,000 pieces. There were 17,108,005 pieces of mail matter illegally addressed so as to require special attention before delivery could be effected, an increase of over 4,500,000 over last year.

There were during the year 825 casualties in which seven clerks were killed, sixty-three seriously injured and 222 slightly injured. This is the largest number of casualties ever recorded in any year in the history of the service. Chicago has a scheme to buy 10,000,000 worth of statutory to be used in beautifying the city.

The most rapid industrial development that the world has ever known has resulted in great combinations of producers along similar lines, whose object in combining their forces has been the greater availability of the most improved methods of production and distribution, all that is implied by cheaper production. These "trusts" as they are called, have attained wonderful results in cheapening production and in most instances the cost to the consumer. In some instances they have not resulted in benefit to the consumer. They require legislative control. The party whose judicious administration has resulted in this desire no change?

Democratic methods of government have been given a fair and expensive trial. They have proven chimerical and disastrous. Their theories were impractical and their efforts to reform were hampered by the dishonesty of their leaders on one hand and their inexperience incompetence on the other. Their administration resulted in industrial depression and commercial distrust. Gratifying Republican majorities at the polls have testified louder than words where lies the confidence of the American voter.

Reciprocity? certainly we will have reciprocity whenever the conditions are ripe for it, whenever foreign nations conclude to come to our terms. The party that has built up American industries to their present prosperous condition may be relied upon to exercise this control and the American people are content to intrust the Republican party with the task.

The overflowing Treasury, factories running overtime farmers receiving unprecedented prices for their crops, bankers reporting increases in mortgages, exports breaking all previous records, abundant employment, good wages, full dinner-pails in a word, universal prosperity and every body happy. These are the conditions after six years of Republican administration. Is it surprising that an intelligent people desire no change.

If the Pekin cable that reports that Minister Wu has been recalled should prove true it will be a matter of regret to all who know him. He has become quite popular in the United States and he evidently stands for the more enlightened element in China. However, it is probable that having had an extensive experience in this country he can render even more service at home.

The people of United States owe a debt of gratitude to the state of New York and particularly to the officials of Auburn prison for the manner in which they performed their painful duties in connection with the execution of Czolgosz. The entire absence of sensational publicity was most commendable as well as most salutary.

President Roosevelt has given another evidence of the sincerity of his purpose by the appointment of Mr. William Dudley Foulke to the Federal Reserve Commission of which, as the President is a Democrat, he will become the president. Mr. Foulke will carry on the work of the commission as honestly as did Commissioner Roosevelt.

Some would be facetious, but anonymous Southerner has sent President Roosevelt an opprobrium. The President was not at all annoyed but with his characteristic good sense, ordered that it be fattened and served on the White House table with the Thanksgiving turkey.

Manufacturing industries which not only supply the home demand but, a large proportion of the world's requirements have resulted from the Republican doctrine of protection. This is the stern fact which gives to the Democratic free trade doctrine that wan, pale look.

Mr. George Whitehead's excellent record as a special agent of the treasury won his appointment to the New York appraiser-ship. Merit counts with the President.

President Roosevelt's habit of "talking right out in meeting" is very trying to the man who would do a little backbiting "on the dead quiet".

It takes a broad gage man to enjoy a story at his own expense. Nobody enjoyed "Doolley's" "Alone in Cuba" more than Colonel Roosevelt.

President Roosevelt, although an ardent sportsman does not make war on birds. The predaceous game of the Rockies is more to his taste.

JAS. H. FARRELL, A PROMINENT CHICAGO MAN.

And The Oldest Member of the Illinois House of Representatives. Makes A Recommendation.

James H. Farrell of Chicago is one of the best known figures in the Democratic politics of that city. For years he has been a member of the famous Cook County Democratic Marching Club, which has participated in Democratic campaigns half the time of the union, and which went to New York especially to assist in the election of Governor Van Wick.

Capt. Farrell is the oldest member of the Illinois House of Representatives, a record of service, having been a member continuously since 1887. His constituents have elected him eight times. He has been a leader in that body from the beginning of his career and is one of the best known figures in Illinois politics.

Capt. Farrell is 59 years of age and one of the best preserved men for his years in the Illinois Legislature, despite his arduous and constant duties in that body. Mr. Farrell is engaged in the real estate business in Chicago. Under date of March 14, 1901, he writes as follows:

Where Sedan Chairs Survive.

Will it be believed that the Sedan chair still exists in a bustling town not far from Paris—in Orleans? In this pretty city, says a Paris newspaper, especially on Sundays at the hour of mass, the classic Sedan chair, as it was known to the gallants of the Eighteenth century, is borne through the streets by robust carriers, its occupants being aged people and invalids, to whom the jolting of a carriage is intensely disagreeable.

Astounding Discovery.

Himelburger, "for three generations of our family have used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and never found it's equal for coughs and colds." Longer, but Not Higher.

Napoleon was searching one day for a book in the library of Malmaison and at last discovered it on a shelf somewhat above his reach. Marshal Moncey, who was present, one of the tallest men in the army, stepped forward, saying, "Permit me, sire; I am higher than your majesty." "You are longer, marshal," said the emperor, with a frown.

Great Luck of an Editor.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Bldg. 2, Hamilton, N. Y. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, P. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

"I have not yet found a case of ovarian or womb trouble which has not been relieved or cured by the faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

SULTAN BACKS DOWN.

DEMANDS OF FRANCE ARE CONCEDED BY TURKEY.

Abdül Hamid, Driven by Alarm, Pays Lorando and Tubini Claims in Full—Convicts Overpower Guards at Leavenworth Prison and Escape.

France has scored a complete triumph in the Turkish disputes. The French foreign office Friday morning received advice announcing that the Sultan had yielded to the entire demands formulated by the French government and only the question of form regarding the execution of the engagement remained to be settled.

The Sultan, having become thoroughly alarmed at the situation in which he found himself because of the energetic measures adopted by France, sent Friday to the French embassy drafts on the customs department in full payment of the Lorando and Tubini claims and in settlement of all other claims urged by France.

President Loubet presided Friday at the cabinet council. The foreign minister, M. Delcasse, announced that the Porte had advised him that it had decided to give satisfaction in the case of the various French demands, to which M. Delcasse replied that so soon as the Sultan's order regarding the Porte's decision was communicated to him Admiral Caillaud's squadron would leave the island of Mytilene.

CONVICTS IN A MUTINY.
Overpower Guards and Escape from Leavenworth Prison.

Two men were killed and three injured in a battle between prison guards and convicts Thursday at the new United States penitentiary building, Leavenworth, Kan. After the guards were overpowered by the leaders of the jail breakers the gates were thrown open and all the 450 convicts gave a chance to escape. Only twenty-six broke out and they made good their escape, hiding in the tall woods near the prison. The attack on the guards and the escape was the culmination of a well-laid plot, carried out in the most daring manner.

The meeting took place at the new prison building, where the convicts were at work. The thirty guards in charge of the men were surprised. Then the ringleaders in the mutiny urged all the prisoners to join in the revolt. The movement spread, and the stockade was in wild excitement. Twice repulsed in efforts to break from the stockade the convicts finally carried the main gate by assault, and once outside started a reign of terror. They drove the persons lying near into their homes, captured weapons, bugles and more arms, and holding close together they started on their flight. As they went the multitudes spread terror through the country. The escaping convicts started in to get citizens' clothing by making farmers, either in the fields or roads, strip and exchange for the numbered and striped convict suits.

Meantime all the prison guards who had been using every effort to prevent a general uprising. The military at Fort Leavenworth was called on to help restore order at the new penitentiary site and held in check the convicts who did not leave the stockade.

Some unknown person had passed in three revolvers to the ringleaders, Gus Parker, one of the plotters, secured the weapons unnoticed and he was joined by Frank Thompson, a big negro, and the two men held up the office of Frank Hines, the contractor, and compelled Mr. Hines and his assistants to march before them as a shield while they attacked the guards on the towers. Ford Quinn, a convict, and J. B. Waldrup, a guard, were killed. Three other guards were injured.

Early Friday morning an increased number of guards, well armed and mounted, were started out from the penitentiary, and the day was spent in an exciting man hunt perhaps as has been experienced in that part of the country since the border days. The convicts and the pursuing party—forty guards and a troop of federal cavalry—met in fierce battle about seventeen miles southeast of Leavenworth, and a desperate conflict was waged.
